

Mines Magazine Display Advertising Rates and Specifications

Mines Magazine is a four-color magazine published four times a year by Colorado School of Mines and the Mines Alumni Association. Colorado School of Mines is a highly respected applied science and engineering undergraduate and graduate university with an emphasis on energy, materials, earth resources and the environment. Mines is distributed to all known alumni residing in the U.S., campus faculty, graduate students and all members of the undergraduate senior class. The online edition is promoted via hyperlinked emails to:

- to the same group as our print version, including all undergraduate students
- all international alumni who we have emails for
- all users on our social media sites and interested subscribers on minesmagazine.com (subscribers include any Wordpress.com user who is interested in our stories; not all subscribers are alumni).

The magazine aims to keep readers in touch with the school and its alumni by providing coverage of campus events, academic programs, research, student life, alumni news and other issues of concern to the community. According to in-depth readership surveys, the magazine has a loyal and interested readership: the latest survey indicates that 94 percent of recipients read the magazine, with 39 percent of respondents reporting that they read it “cover-to-cover.” Mines Magazine has a press run of 28,000 and has been published continuously since 1910.

Reader Demographics

Colorado School of Mines has an international reputation as one of the best earth science schools in the world, and its graduates are highly sought after.

- Most graduates are engineers who pursue technical, professional or managerial careers.
- A high percentage of alumni work in energy-related fields.
- Alumni with job titles number 17,000. Of these, 33 percent carry executive-level job titles.
- About 50 percent of alumni live in the West and Southwest, 6,500 of whom are in the Denver-metro area.
- More than 60 percent of the school's alumni are under the age of 40.
- According to Payscale's 2013–2014 College Salary Report, the average starting salary for graduates with bachelor's degrees is $66,700, the sixth highest among all U.S. universities.
- We have an average of 4,000 page views/month on our minesmagazine.com website.

Publication Schedule

Mines Magazine is published four times a year: winter, spring, summer, and fall.

General Rate Policy

- DISCOUNT RATES: Frequency is determined by the total number of paid insertions during the previous 12-month period or a commitment to insertion in multiple issues.
- SHORT ORDERS: Advertisers will be short-rated if they do not use the amount of space on which their billings are based within the same 12-month period.
- LIABILITY: Advertisers and advertising agencies assume liability for all content of advertising printed and are responsible for all claims made against the publisher arising from printed advertising.
- PUBLISHER'S RIGHTS: The publisher reserves the right to reject any advertisement at the publisher's discretion.
- PAYMENT: Payment must be received by the publisher no later than one month after the mail drop date.
